

Working with China in the Global Market

中美合作面面观

September 22, 2013 • 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm

ASU Memorial Union 220 Turquoise Ballroom

Free and Open to Public

Welcome Keynote:

The Consulate General of the People's Republic of China in Los Angeles

Overview:

Professor Madeline K. Spring
Director of ASU Confucius Institute

China has become an economic powerhouse and an increasingly influential global player with growing collaborative and strategic opportunities. In this panel, the speakers will share experiences and discuss strategies for developing synergies of conducting business between the U.S. and China.

Featured Speakers:

“China: Strategic Partner or Economic Competitor?”
Congressman Matt Salmon
United States Representative
5th District of Arizona

“Commercial Aviation in China: A Close-Up View”
Briand Greer
President, Aerospace Asia Pacific
Honeywell International, Inc.

“Intel’s Next Pivot Point: Mobile in China”
Steven Tu
Chief Architect of Mobile Product Line
Intel Corporation

Register online today at <http://confuciusinstitute.asu.edu/portal/chinaforum2013>

ASU Confucius Institute
亚利桑那州立大学孔子学院

ASU SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL
LETTERS & CULTURES
ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY
亚利桑那州立大学国际语言文化学院

United Chinese Association of Arizona
亚省华人华侨联合会